

Launch of B-Gyaan : The Management Club of SPPSPTM @ NMIMS

Venue: Room 411, 4th Floor, SPPSPTM

Date – 3rd August 2024

Organized by Department of Pharm-Tech Management

The Department of Pharm-Tech Management launched "B GYAAN" – the Management Club for SPPSPTM Pharm-Tech MBA students on 3rd August in Classroom 411.

The event commenced with Prof. Jagadish Audipudy, Prof of Practice and HOD Pharm-Tech management felicitating Dr Jayant Gandhi, Hon Sec and Mentor, SPPSPTM @ NMIMS, and Dr Jagannath Sahoo, Hon Dean SPPSPTM

Prof Jagadish Audipudy began by emphasizing the significance of the club, highlighting its role in addressing real-world cases and problems that may not be included in classroom discussions. He cited the example of the union budget, which was previously discussed as a panel discussion under the same club. He focused on the club's vision and essence, stressing the importance of out-of-class learning.

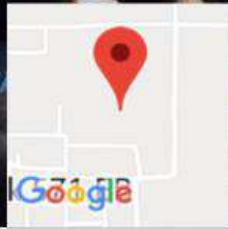

In his address, our Dean Dr. Jagannath Sahoo emphasized the importance of learning outside the classroom and the value of networking in personal and professional growth.

Dr. Jayant Gandhi then unveiled the club's name, "B GYAAN," which stands for Business Gyaan, with the tagline "Beyond Boundaries (Outside Classroom)." Dr Jayant Gandhi emphasized the importance of management gurus, learning leadership skills, and achieving excellence. He also highlighted the significance of soft skills, critical thinking, and social sensitization.

The event proceeded with speeches from B.Pharm + MBA students of our Convocation batch, who shared their insights and experiences. They discussed the club's mission and vision, the practicality versus theory debate, industry exposure beyond classroom learning, and its impact on placement profiles. They also touched upon the learning outcomes from case interviews, including soft skills, fit checks, group discussions, and skill endorsements.

The President-elect of B-Gyaan, Sai Shreyaansh from 5th Year B.Pharm + MBA shared that our BGyaan shared the Vision, Mission and Activity Calendar for the next three months. Overall, the inauguration event of the Management Club "B GYAAN" was a resounding success, setting the stage for an enriching journey of learning beyond the classroom.
